

Colour Coded Cleaning & Hygiene

Using colour-coded cleaning materials is a simple yet vital practice that helps prevent cross-contamination. Each colour is designated for a specific area or task. By following this system, you can reduce the spread of bacteria and viruses, comply with health and safety regulations, and promote a cleaner, safer environment for everyone.

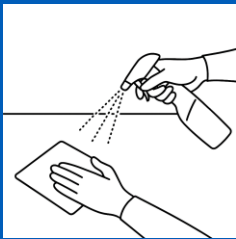

Red

Toilets
Bathrooms
Dirty Utility
Rooms

Blue

General Cleaning

Green

Kitchen
Food Service
Areas
Preparation
Areas

Yellow

Infectious
Isolation
Areas

